Social Work dissertations held in the Sheppard Library

MA Social Work

Social work and the internet: an exploration of social workers’ understandings of contemporary online risks and how to keep children and young people safe online (2016) / Brada, Hannah.

A qualitative interview study exploring the views of social workers and residential care workers with regard to readiness of looked-after children for independent living and their transition into adulthood upon leaving care (2017) / Kulinkin, Alexander

Social work students’ views on the transition from childhood to adulthood and whether a new approach might be a better fit for social work policy and law today (2016) / Hargrave, Benjamin

BA Social Work

Challenges of social work practice: children and young people at risk from radicalisation: what is the role of the social worker in identifying and supporting children and young people at risk from radicalisation? (2016) / Ahmed, Monsur

How effective is social work guidance and policies in safeguarding children from physical chastisement? (2016) / Bunbury, Shevonne

Child risk and parental capacity to change: working with resistance in social work practice (2016) / Sene, Nsona Mawete

Educational attainment of looked-after children: issues for social work practice (2016) / Nabbishell, Saidat